

What is an Individual Academic Profile (IAP)?

The Individual Academic Profile (IAP) is a record of existing information from University systems that includes HDR supervision and completion, in addition to publications and research grants. The IAP is not a scorecard of performance; it is a report of individual contributions and achievements, which are intended to provide evidence in support of Planning, Development