Going to a conference this year?

If you will be attending a national or international conference this year, then consider volunteering to host it in Adelaide.

The Adelaide Convention and Tourism Authority (ACTA) is working with the University of Adelaide to bring more conferences to Adelaide. We are here to help you and provide complimentary support from the earliest bidding process to the final realisation of the conference.

We provide an impartial 'one stop shop' and can help you with all of your conference needs.

So if you will be attending a conference in 1997, why not take a package of information on Adelaide, including a complimentary promotional video.

For details of support provided, and to obtain your Adelaide package, contact Ms Anne-Marie Quinn on 8212 4794 or the Vice-Chancellor's Office on ext 33011. Email: <aquinn@registry.adelaide.edu.au>

Interview: David Morton on animal experiments

The issue of scientific experiments on animals was looked at from a fresh perspective last month when visiting UK Professor David Morton gave a guest lecture at the University of Adelaide, at the invitation of ANZCCART (Australian & New Zealand Council for the Care of Animals in Research and Teaching) and the Faculty of Science.

David Ellis spoke with David Morton, who is Professor of Biomedical Science & Ethics at the University of Birmingham, about the prevention and alleviation of pain and fear in animals.
